

LIVESTOCK DEPARTMENT - 26

Committee: Debbie Beaty, Gary Adams, Jonathan Miller, Ricky Smith

RULES

1. Pens will be provided for hogs, sheep, poultry and goats.
2. All cattle must be shown under halter and be tied on the rail.
3. Each exhibitor will be responsible for the feeding and care of his livestock.
4. No animal showing symptoms of any communicable disease will be permitted on the fairground premises. The winner and exhibitor of any suspect animal may contest the ruling of the Fair Association official by employing a licensed veterinarian at his own expense.
5. All rules and regulations governing movement and handling of livestock at Fair will be enforced.
6. See the rules under each show for the entering and display times.
7. All complaints with reference to pedigree, age of animal, and etc. shall be submitted to Breed Association representative.
8. All cattle in place 1 hour prior to show time.
9. Animals must enter the show ring to receive a premium.
10. Health certificate required on all animals. This requirement will be strictly enforced.
11. 5 head of cattle are required for a breed show. This requirement will be strictly enforced.
12. NO DOGS ALLOWED!